Ann sat with her cat.

“Will you help me?”
said Sam.

“I will help you,”
said Ann.

“We can fill the bags,” said Sam.

Ann got the bags.

“Will you help me?”
said Sam.

“I will help you,”
said Ann.

Think and Respond

-  1 How does Ann help Sam?
-  2 Why do you think Sam needs help?
-  3 If you were in the story, what would you do with Ann and Sam?

Apple Names Think of words that describe apples. Make a list of the words.

School-Home Connection After children read aloud the story, point out the quotation marks that come before and after the dialogue. Help children understand that these marks tell that someone is speaking.
