Tales of Mr. Map

by Rozanne Lanczak Williams
illustrated by Morella Fuenmayor

•• THE GIANT ••

‣ A big giant came in the gate.
He was lost.

‣ Fee-fie-fo-fum.

*I want to go to the place
I came from!*

▶ The people wanted to get the giant out of town—FAST! They sang a song,

▶ If you need to know

The place to go,

Take the path to Mr. Map.

“ Mr. Map gave the giant a special map. “Take this map of the country,” he said. “It will show you where to go.”

Fee-fie-fo-fum.
I can go to the place
I came from!

•• TWO LITTLE GIRLS ••

- Two little girls came to town.
- The girl in the red cape said,
- “I want to go to my Grandma’s house. She is sick. I want to take her a cake I made.”

“I want to take a walk in the country,” said the girl.

‣ The people in the town went with the girls to see Mr. Map.

They all sang a song,

‣ If you need to know

The place to go,

Take the path to Mr. Map!

Mr. Map gave the girls a special map. He waved to them.

•• THE BRAVE PRINCE ••

A brave prince came to town.

“Can you help me find a girl? I will look all over the Earth for her. I must take this to her!”

Mr. Map gave the prince a map of the world.

•• A BIG BAD WOLF ••

A big bad wolf came in the gate. He said, "I am late! I need a map. I am late for dinner with my sweet little pigs!"

❏ The wolf was charming. He had a cape and a cane, but the people saw his big teeth. They saw his big bag.

❏ *If you need to know
The place to go,

Mr. Map did not trust the wolf! He came up with a trick. Mr. Map made the wolf a fake map.

« The wolf followed the fake map. He followed the map out of the town, out of the country, and out of this tale!

*If you need to know
The place to go,
