▶ Come visit our school. We are doing a great play. It's called "The Little Fiddle."

▀ The place is beautiful.
▀ Kids get set to start.

- ▣ Kids huddle and babble.
- ▣ They grin and wiggle.

- ▀ Kids talk together and help each other.
- ▀ It's simple to help.

Kids put on masks with big smiles. The masks tickle.

Some kids have silly goggle masks. They make us giggle.

“Moms, dads, and little kids
come. They sit in our school.”

- ▶ We smile at each other.
- ▶ The place is filling up.

- We act silly together.
- We tickle each other.

Do we stand here? No.
We run out and start.

- ▶ We sing and act.
- ▶ We put on a great play.

Think and Respond

- 1 What is the name of the play?
- 2 Who is doing the play?
- 3 What do the children wear for the play?
- 4 Why do the children act silly?
- 5 Were you ever in a play or have you seen a play? What did you like or not like about it?

Mask Tasks Think about an animal you like. Then use a paper plate and string or a paper bag and make an animal mask for yourself.

School-Home Connection Write the word fiddle on a piece of paper. Name other words that rhyme with fiddle. List these words on paper.
