Summary

Dr. Zabi Rezaee is currently Thompson-Hill Chair of Excellence and Professor of Accountancy at The University of Memphis and served a two-year term on the 30-member Standing Advisory Group (SAG) to assist the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (PCAOB) in its standard-setting responsibilities. Dr. Rezaee has previously taught at Middle Tennessee State University, University of Detroit, University of Alabama in Huntsville, and University of Tehran in Iran, and his areas of teaching include auditing, financial, international, and managerial accounting, cost and management accounting, internal auditing, accounting systems applications, financial statements analysis, research, and theory. Evaluations by students and colleagues indicate high effectiveness in teaching various courses.

Professor Rezaee has published more than 170 articles in Journal of Accounting and Economics, Contemporary Accounting Research, Journal of Business, Finance and Accounting, Journal of Accounting, Auditing and Finance, Advances in Public Interest Accounting, International Journal of Accounting Educational Research, The Internal Auditing, Managerial Auditing, Advances in International Accounting, Journal of Applied Business Research, Accounting Horizons, The CPA Journal, Journal of Accountancy, The Accounting Educator's Journal, Management Accounting, Public Budgeting & Finance, International Journal of Business Disciplines, EDP Auditor Journal, Internal Auditors, International Advances in Economic Research, Accounting Education, Corporate Finance Review, Research in Accounting Regulations, Strategic Finance, Advances in Environmental Management, and Audit: A Journal of Practice and Theory, among others. He has presented over one hundred research papers at universities and regional, national, and international meetings, and has received numerous research grants from various sources. Dr. Rezaee is the recipient of the 1998 distinguished research award at Middle Tennessee State University. He has reviewed papers for many journals, meetings, and foundations. He is the editor of Iran Business Monitor Journal and a member of the Iranian Academic Association. Dr. Rezaee received the Lybrand Bronze Medal for the outstanding article of the 1999 year, selected by the Institute of Management Accountants. He serves on the editorial board of Global Finance Journal, Journal of Forensic Accounting, and the National Accounting Journal. Professor Rezaee has recently written books entitled Financial Institutions, Valuations, Mergers, and Acquisitions: The Fair Value Approach published by John Wiley & Sons, Inc. 2001 and Financial Statement Fraud: Prevention and Detection also published by John Wiley & Sons, Inc. in 2002. Dr. Rezaee recently received an Outstanding Contributor Award for his article, "The Three Cs of Fraudulent Financial Reporting," published in the October 2002 issue of Internal Auditor.

Professor Rezaee holds CPA, CMA, CIA, CFE and CGFM certificates and possesses practical experience in both public and managerial accounting. He has served on a number of university committees, held officer positions in numerous professional organizations, and is a consulting member of United Nations development programs. Dr. Rezaee is recognized as a collegial faculty member who shows a willingness to interact with students and faculty in the exchange of ideas. His teamwork and collegiality are evidenced by a number of publications he has coauthored with his colleagues. He has also been a source of assistance and encouragement to the younger accounting faculty members.
