

A. Match the pictures with the given phrases. Then work out their meanings.

a. Shrine	b. Palace	c. Museum	d. Mosque	e. Zoo	f. Bridge

B. Put ✓ for what you can do and ✗ for what you can't do. Then pair up and talk about the questions.

I am Peter. I  visiting Iran.
But, I don't know much about it.
Write to us about your cities.

1. Where is your city?
2. What's it like?
3. What is it famous for?
4. Are there any restaurants in your city?
5. Is there a metro system?

C. This is Goochi's comment on Peter's blog. Read it and answer the questions.

Hi Peter!

This is Goochi. My city is Mashhad. It's in the north-east of Iran. It's a big and old city. Mashhad is very famous for the holy shrine of Imam Reza. There are many great restaurants in Mashhad. Shandiz Restaurant is a new one. Kebab (Sheshlik) is the special food of my city. It's great.

There is a big stadium in my city, Samen al-Aame Stadium. I go to the stadium by metro (subway). Also, there is an airport in my city. It's very famous. You should see my city soon. It's very lovely.

Best,

Goochi

D. Read the text again and answer Sam's questions.

Sam: Where is Goochi from?

You:

Sam: Where is Mashhad?

You:

Sam: What is Mashhad famous for?

You:

Sam: Are there any restaurants in Mashhad?

You:

E. Complete the following text about your own city.

My city is It is in the of Iran. It's a and city.

It is famous for There are

There is You should see