The world around us is full of amazing things. Knowing this beautiful world is very interesting for researchers. So they study about the world. Some of them research about “microbes”. They’re known as “biologists”.

Some other researchers make new things. They are smart and active. We call them “inventors”. Actually they want to make people’s lives easier and this is their purpose. Some of them may become very rich and many people around the world may remember their names. But this is not what they call “humanity”. They enjoy helping people to make a better world and call that “humanity”.

الف- جمله درست را با T و جمله نادرست را با F مشخص کنید.

1. “Becoming rich” is the point inventors call that “humanity”. _____
2. Some researchers who research about microbes, are known as “inventors”. _____
3. Some people may never remember inventors’ names. _____
